

Clarendon Fund Scholarships at University of Oxford

Description:

The Clarendon Fund is a major graduate scholarship scheme at the University of Oxford, offering around 140 new scholarships every year. Clarendon Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic excellence and potential across all degree-bearing subjects at graduate level at the University of Oxford.

Level of Study: Masters/PhD Degrees

Departments/Subjects:

- Department of Computer Science
- Department of Physics
- Department of Computer Science, Department of Engineering Science
- Department of Biochemistry
- School of Geography and the Environment
- Department of Chemistry
- Department of Engineering Science
- Department of Humanities
- Department of Management sciences
- Department of Health sciences

Benefit:

All Clarendon Scholarships cover tuition and college fees in full.

Scholars on a full-time course receive a generous annual grant for living costs – which will be at least £15,009 for 2020-21. Scholars on a part-time course will receive a study support grant, to assist with non-fee costs. Scholars on a part-time course will receive a study support grant, to assist with non-fee costs. In 2020-21, part-time DPhil scholars should expect to receive at least £2,502 and part-time Master's scholars should expect at least £5,003.

The scholarships are normally offered for the full period for which you are liable to pay tuition fees to the University, which is usually the same as the length of your course.

Eligibility:

Clarendon Scholarships are awarded on the basis of outstanding academic merit and potential to graduate students from all around the world. Scholarships are tenable in all subject areas and are open to candidates who apply for a new master's or DPhil course by the January admissions deadline.

Deadline: Jan 2021 (annual)

For further details please click the given below university official link:

<http://www.clarendon.ox.ac.uk/>